GEN. GRANT AS RADICAL "PRINCE."

It would be as well for all the people and papers of the South to await with silence the development of General Grant's plans to govern the country, to whose rulership he has been elevated. We shall probably not know what those plans are until he pronounces his inaugural, and we had as well wait till then before making up an opinion upon his "policy." In the meantime, however, there is no way of preventing the publication of numberless speculations. The following from a Washington letter writer is not encouraging. He says:

"A distinguished Radical Senator, who arrived in this city last evening, says that the idea now becoming so prevalent of General Grant's conservative views will prove delusive. He bases this declaration upon his knowledge of Grant's political faith, as derived directly from the General immediately after his nomination by the Chicago Convention. Among other things, he says Grant emphatically declared to him a full endorsement of negro suffrage, enforced, if necessary, by Congressional action. In a protracted conversation on the subject between the General and a number of Radical Congressmen, he said he had been at one time opposed to extending the right of franchise to freedmen, but that his views had undergone a radical change on that question, and that he now regarded it as essentially necessary for their protection that they should be armed with the ballot. This Senator further says, that during the latter portion of the last session of Congress, Grant was in the lead on all Radical measures, and favored the most radical method of executing the several reconstruction acts. Hence, he laughs at the idea that Grant's inaugural will lay out a conservative policy for his administration, unless an administration of the laws, as exacted and understood by the Radical party, be considered conservative. Our Senatorial informant further stated that General Grant had, no doubt, fixed upon the whole of his cabinet, except a Secretary of the Treasury, and upon this he would probably decide while in New York. He thinks Mr. Motley, late minister to Austria, will be tendered the State Department."

CESSATION OF SOUTHERN OUTRAGES.

The election of Grant seems to have worked like a charm in the South. We hear no more of murders, of squabbles between whites and blacks, of the troubles of "carpet baggers," or of the doings of the Ku-Klux. We have reason to be altogether delighted at the news we now receive from the Southern States.—N. Y. Times.

There has evidently been some magic in all this, or else the Times draws upon its imagination for its facts. The latter is the true solution. The Times would have us believe that up to the 3d. of November the Southern people breakfasted, dined and supped on horrors, and that it was their chief business and their supremest pleasure to slaughter negroes and carpet-baggers; but that, by some sort of hocus pocus, they abandoned this cruel sport on and after that day and became quiet and exemplary. The Times is "delighted" at the present condition of affairs in the South. The truth, if the Times wants the truth, is that the mendacious scribblers and hirelings employed to write up Southern outrages, as election capital for the Radicals, have now lost their vocation. The election is over, the object sought to be accomplished has been attained, and there is now no necessity for outrages wherewith to fire the Northern heart. Should a demand for them spring up to-morrow, the same instrumentalities would be set to work, and outrages would be as plenty as blackberries in their season. The Times, which to-day affects to be "delighted at the news from the Southern States," would then, and as suddenly, affect to be horrified "at the news from the Southern States." This talk of the Times is all bosh. Every political outrage that occurred in the South prior to the election was brought on by Radical incendiaries and agitators. The moment they cease their evil work everthing becomes quiet.—Richmond Whig.

The increase of licentiousness in this country is pronounced before the Scientific Congress to be very great, and the late civil war pronounced to be the most prolific cause of this. The clergy and boasted philanthropists who believe in war and who are ready to get up another, if need be, in vindication of their extreme opinions, will please take notice. Preaching politics in the pulpit also has driven people beyond the good influences of religion, and in turn into the vortex of the world. The most popular social education for some years, both from the pulpit and forum, has been the law of personal, social and sectional hate, and the wonder is, with so many radical preachers and teachers, immorality is not even greater than we see it.

But there are grater evils from war than personal licentiousness and political demoralization. Our recent civil war has changed our Federal Constitution, and, if not in the letter, what is a great deal worse, in its spirit. Part of this, perhaps, grew out of the necessities of the hour, but more from the innovations upon Constitutional Liberty, which are the natural products of war. Thus we saw the Supreme Court recognize the South as a belligerent power, and then we were quite ready to quarrel with England for following our example. We also hasten to recognize a revolution in Spain, when we were so fierce to frown upon all powers which dared to recognize a revolution at home. The Czar of all the Russias becomes the source of our profoundest admiration, though this same Czar is the head and front of the worst despotism in the old world. War not only blinds men to all consistency and all decency, but seems to root out all that is moral in principle and conservative in character. The exception only proves the rule.—N. Y. Express.

A dispatch from St. Louis says: "Senator Henderson is in the city. He expresses full confidence in the prospect of his reelection to the United States Senate by the Legislature of Missouri, asserting that a considerable number of Republicans will vote for him, and he expects to get the entire Democratic vote, which is more than probable."

Secretary McCulloch says that under no circumstances would he remain in office after the 4th of March, and that his only desire is to hand over the department to his successor in the best possible condition.

Stop the Thief.

STOLEN FROM MY STABLES, on the night of the 16th inst., a DARK BAY MARE, 15 or 14 years old, with dark or black mane and tail and about 5 feet high. The thief has probably gone in the direction of Goldsboro', as he passed through Selma, in this County, where he stopped and had the mare shod.

A suitable reward will be given for her recovery, or any information that will lead to it. I want the thief as well as the mare.

WM. E. PELL, } SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1868.

MAJ. AVERY AND THE SENATE.

The action of the Senate, on Friday, in the case of Maj. Avery, of Burke, Senator elect from the 41st. District, will strike the honest reader as one of the most shameless [illegible] yet developed in the history of that body. The course of Messrs. Respass and Rich, especially, and of Messrs. Beasley, Beeman, Jones, Lindsay, Moore, of Yancey, Richardson, Winstead and Wilson, Republicans, is in marked contrast with that of the other Radicals of the body, and affords some assurance that they, at least, can rise above the petty feelings and low, mean purposes of those who are bent upon partizan vindictiveness and proscription. The remarks of Messrs. Respass and Rich were particularly creditable to them, and show plainly that they are determined not to lend themselves to the control of those who delight in bitterness, malignity and violence. We are glad to say that, of the new comers into the State, Mr. Rich is regarded here as the most liberal, and the least inclined to keep up and encourage the prejudices which have been excited against them, among respectable natives of the State, by their general bitterness and strong partizan and selfish feeling and conduct.

The speeches of Messrs. Robbins and Graham, in favor of Mr. Avery's claim to his seat, were unanswerable, and, therefore, were not attempted to be rebutted by argument. The vote shows that it was a foregone conclusion in the outset to oust Mr. Avery, without regard to law or propriety. Some few among the Radicals may possibly have really thought that Mr. Avery was banned, but it is evident they nursed their party prejudice and closed their ears to the proofs that he was not banned. The decision of the Judges in this State ought to have satisfied every honest mind on the subject, yet the past history of such men as Messrs. Caldwell, Barrow, Blythe, and others, shows that they regard themselves as too wise to be instructed. Verily, they are the men,—and knowledge will die with them!

We are quite sure that A. H. Galloway was misled by false representations of Maj. Avery's course towards him on the Electoral ticket. Maj. Avery made no such attack upon Galloway, or the colored race, as seems to have been represented to him. Some of his own party friends in the upper counties, from what we learn, are far more liable to that charge than Maj. Avery. It is, however, plain, that no other reason, whatever, (because none other could be given,) but whether Maj. Avery was banned or not, ought to have influenced a vote. The question ought to have been put at rest by the decisions of the Judges in this State. The right of a Legislative body to determine the qualifications of its members is not a revolutionary or licentious right, but a right limited by the principles of law and justice and the fitness of things. The Senate is not supposed to be an expositor of law, but should apply the law, as expounded by the Judiciary, to the facts in the case of the applicant for the seat. If this safe rule had been observed, Maj. Avery would have been admitted without question.

The people of the 41st. Senatorial District owe it to themselves to rebuke this flagrant insult of these mere party claquers in the most indignant manner.

"MIXED UNIVERSITY."—The truth of the rumor, to which we referred on Friday, has not been denied. We therefore feel authorized in asserting that a proposition to negroize the University received the support of Judge William B. Rodman, Pasquotank Ashley and James F. Taylor. We even learn that the latter expressed himself in favor of a negro "Professor" in the University. No one, however, is surprised at any vagary from Font. It is also said that the African squad have received a reinforcement in the person of General Abbott, of New Hampshire, who thinks that the objection to mixing whites and negroes in the schools is only a "prejudice." Chief Justice Pearson has taken strong ground against this movement, and it is, doubtless, owing to his influence, that it has been, thus far, defeated.

WHO WROTE IT?—It will be seen that Mr. Robbins rose to a question of privilege, in the Senate, on Saturday, relative to a gross misrepresentation of his position, in the Editorial columns of the Woman Jacobin. The Lieutenant Governor volunteered the information that the Reporter was not responsible for the article, as he (Mr. Caldwell) had seen it before it was issued. Mr. Robbins said nothing about the Reporter. Why Mr. Caldwell's irrelevant information?

By the way, the Editor or Editors of the Standard are fancy. Is Mr. Caldwell "among the prophets?" He seems, at all events, to have a revisory "situation."

THE NEW YORK Express, commenting upon the financial exhibit of "Gov." Holden's message, says, pithily: "We do not know which needs praying for most,—the State or its creditors."

THE STAY LAWS—RELIEF.

If there be a man in North Carolina, who understands the real condition of the debtor class in this State, and now proposes hastily to break up the stay laws in existence, and thus violate the pledged faith of the State to those who have sought relief through their agency, his heart must be adamant—lost to humanity, to the cries of widowed and orphaned innocence, and to the ruin of women and children.

We repeat that we have always been opposed to the principle of stay laws—to any law for the relief of debtors, which discriminates unjustly against the creditor. The present stay law is understood to have been framed with the view of relief to both debtor and creditor, and was very generally acquiesced in by all classes. Its passage was demanded by the strong appeals of the people, and was rendered necessary by the unfortunate and inopportune stay law passed during the war. The necessity for its continuance, until the parties who have sought its benefits and relied upon its provisions have settled their matters, is as imperious, now, as it was at first. Many parties have paid some of their instalments, while numbers of others have renewed their [illegible] notes to creditors, upon the assurance that they would be protected. That some dishonest debtors may have made it a shelter of protection, to deprive honest creditors of their rights, may be true; but should the innocent be made to suffer with the guilty?

The repeal of the Stay law, so long as the public mind believes it should continue, cannot be effected, without great injury to many honest debtors, and to a large number of widows and orphans, whose means of living are wholly in the hands of debtors.

We hope the signal vote of the House on the proposition of Mr. Smith, of Martin, to repeal the law, will put a quietus upon the question, until the people demand the repeal.

If the General Assembly feels a proper responsibility, it must see the necessity for cautious legislation in such matters. We hope that it will adopt such a course in general legislation as will secure public approval.

EDGECOMBE.—At a public meeting of the farmers of Edgecombe, last week, a Committee was appointed to draw up a suitable memorial to be presented to the Legislature, praying for the abolishment of the present Fence law. A delegation was also appointed to attend the adjourned Immigration Convention in Goldsboro, on Monday next. The liveliest interest was manifested.

CHATHAM.—The people of Chatham were addressed, last week, during the progress of the Court in that county, by Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., of Orange. His subject was: The new Constitution and the men who rule under it. We learn that the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be published in the Sentinel.

GEN. JOSHUA BARNES.—We regret to learn that this gentleman, Senator from Nash and Wilson, has been so unwell for several days as to necessitate his going home. We trust that he may speedily return to his post, in restored health.

SINGULAR NEWS FROM PARAGUAY.—The New York Post prints correspondence from Rio Janeiro in which is given in detail an extraordinary story (heretofore barely alluded to) about C. A. Washburne, our minister to Paraguay.

It is asserted that Mr. Washburne left the country and abandoned to the barbarous Dictator Lopez two American citizens,—Porter C. Bliss and George F. Masterman—both of whom were, moreover, employed in the Legation, and were thus officers of the United States.

So incredible a story of cowardice on the part of a United States Minister must be received as at least doubtful, and susceptible of some explanation honorable to Mr. Washburne, did not a long letter of Washburne's confirm it. He relates in this letter, which is addressed to the English Minister at Rio de Janeiro, that Bliss and Masterman were "forced from his side" as he and they were passing from the Legation to the water side, where they were to embark in a United States vessel. Not only did he suffer this atrocious violation of the rights of Americans,—of his own officers—but he seems, from his own account, to have gone quietly aboard the vessel waiting for him, to have sailed off, leaving them to their fate, without stopping even to remonstrate.

The correspondent at Rio adds still further that while the English and French fleets are hastening to Paraguay to rescue their people, Washburne has not even called for our fleet, which lies idly in Rio; while Lopez is torturing and murdering at his own sweet will.

Mr. Washburne's own letter condemns him. No such shameless outrage has ever been suffered by American citizens as that which he has tolerated; no such mockgrandee person has ever before misrepresented our Government abroad, or suffered our flag to be dishonored and the sanctity of a United States Legation to be violated.

We will say nothing of the reports which come from Rio de Janeiro of Mr. Washburn's entanglements with Lopez—of his corruption by that barbarian. It is quite enough that he has tamely submitted to have two American citizens, besides a large number of persons of other nations, taken from his Legation, where they had sought refuge from the fury of Lopez.

It appears from Washburne's own letter that Lopez is a ruthless barbarian, who violates every law and respects the rights of no one, whether native or foreign. There is reason to believe that he has submitted Bliss and Masterman to the torture, and there is no reason to deal with him otherwise than as one would with a pirate.

MORE ARMS FOR ARKANSAS—750 Persons or "DEAD BODY" Shipped by Express.—It was reported yesterday that a case of arms was shipped to Arkansas. It is not known how many have preceded it, but it is thought an unquestionable fact that Gov. Clayton intends to inaugurate civil war in Arkansas. The arms for this purpose are to be smuggled into the State in single cases, marked "Dead Body!" That which was shipped by Express, yesterday, to the care of a firm in Little Rock, weighed just seven hundred and fifty pounds, thought to be a little too heavy for a single body, even of the size of Daniel Lambert. We shall see what will come of this persistency.—Memphis Avalanche, Nov. 15.

A very careful estimate of the number of white men disfranchised in Missouri by the constitutional test oath fixes the figure at ninety five thousand.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, NOV. 21, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Brogden, from the Committee on Finance, to whom was referred a bill to provide for the collection of taxes in the county of Carteret for the year 1868, reported favorably.

Mr. Long, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom were referred the credentials of James G. Scott, Senator elect from the 12th District, reported favorably, and the Senator qualified and took his seat.

BILLS.

By Mr. Barrow: A bill to amend sec. 7, section 72, of the Civil Code of Procedure. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By the same: A bill to amend sec. 10, chap. 118, of the Revised Code. Take its place on the Calendar.

CALENDAR.

Resolution instructing the State Librarian, with the advice of the Governor, to purchase certain volumes, for the use of the State Library, was taken up. Numerous amendments were offered, and,

On motion of Mr. Respass, the whole matter was referred to the Committee on Public Library.

Mr. Robbins arose to a question of privilege. He did not know that it was a matter that Senators were interested in, but it was of some interest to himself. He had been misrepresented by one of the newspapers published in this city, (the Standard.) He was accused of saying things that he did not say, and also of going over to their party. He considered it a serious charge, and one calculated to do him more injury than an open attack could. He was a Democrat and expected to remain one until the sun should rise in the West and set in the East. They may have written the article in jest, but he thought it entirely too serious a matter to trifle with. A man's principles are as sacred as the virtue of a woman. He had no idea of concealing his politics, and desired to be above suspicion.

The President said that, in justice to the Reporter, he would state, that he saw the article before it appeared, and the Reporter was not responsible, as the article appeared as an Editorial.

Mr. Robbins replied that his remark were well aimed, and they had hit where he intended it.

On motion of Mr. White, the Senate adjourned until Monday morning, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Nov. 21, 1868.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaver, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Leaves of absence were granted to Messrs. Stevens, Perebee and Allison.

Mr. Clayton, of Chowan, was announced as confined to his room in the City by sickness.

Mr. Pou, as Chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, requested that members knowing facts in connection with cases of contested elections would please communicate with the Committee. The Committee had at present no facts in their possession.

Mr. Pou gave written notice that he would, on Monday next, or some subsequent day, introduce a resolution requesting Congress to remove the political disabilities from citizens of this State, imposed by the 14th Article.

Mr. Ragland moved to lay it on the table, when,

The Chair informed him it was merely a notice! [Laughter.]

BILLS.

By Mr. Nicholson: A bill in favor of builders of public mills. Lies over.

CALENDAR.

House bill No. 14, introduced by Mr. Franklin, was taken up.

[This bill amends the act establishing special Courts in the cities of Newbern and Wilmington, so as to create the same Court in Raleigh. It provides for the holding of said Court on the first Mondays of January, March May, July, September and November, in each year, to continue one week at each session. The Judge of said Court is to appoint its Solicitor, and the bill provides that the cases already on docket of the Superior Court, or returnable thereto at its next term, and triable in this Court, shall be transferred to its jurisdiction at its first term. Jurisdiction to extend to Wake county. The salary of the Judge to be the same as the Judge of the Court in Wilmington.]

Mr. Franklin said he did not think it necessary to dwell upon the necessity of establishing such a Court in this City. The Judge and Solicitor of this district thought it an extremely proper measure. There was an enormous amount of business before the Superior Court, and the Court of Wake, especially, was at a great expense in keeping prisoners in jail. This Court would keep the docket tolerably clear, and avoid the bad policy of herding together a large number of bad characters in jail, &c.

The bill passed its second reading.

B. W. Morris, colored, moved to adjourn. Lost.

The Chair announced that the reports of the various public officers had not yet been printed and transmitted to the House, but would, he supposed, be ready in a few days.

There being no other business before the House, Mr. Franklin moved to take up his bill and put it on its third reading, as the bill had once substantially received the consideration and assent of the Committee on Judicary.

Mr. Welch said that there were new members of that Committee and of the House, who had never had an opportunity of examining it. He disliked to vote unadvisedly upon such matters, and, therefore, would like to have another day to consider it in the careful manner which its importance demanded.

Mr. Franklin said, in order that all might have time to consider the matter, he was willing it should lie over until Monday next.

The bill accordingly remains on the Calendar.

The report of the Auditor of Public Accounts was received and ordered to be printed.

By Mr. Ashworth: A resolution fixing the pay of members of this Assembly at $5 per day and 20 cents mileage; the Speaker of the House and President of the Senate $7 per day and 20 cents mileage; and the officers the same pay as members.

Mr. Smith, of Martin, moved to lay it on the table, but withdrew it, in order to allow Mr. Ashworth to make an explanation.

Mr. A. said that now the people were hard pressed and hardly able to get along, he thought this body should set a good example in reducing the expenses of the county. He introduced this resolution in good faith, and sincerely wished its adoption, as he thought the proposition gave a fair and ample compensation.

Mr. Sinclair endeavored to obtain the floor to speak upon the merits of the measure, but Mr. Smith insisted upon renewing his motion to table.

The yeas and nays were demanded, but the call was not sustained, and, the motion being put, it prevailed, and so the resolution was tabled.

On motion of W. T. Hayes, colored, the House adjourned until Monday morning next, 10 o'clock.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In the organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

NEW YORK.

THE
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SPECIFIED and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; the amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum paid to a company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($8 277) is exactly the same to an immediate heirs or substitution to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass the above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death, is the very thing the contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater and likewise that a reduction of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance or in instalment of forty-two per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the assured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1868.

SESSION SUBSCRIBERS.

Members wishing the Sentinel for the session will please hand in their names to our Reporters, in either House, or send them to the office. We purpose giving as full and accurate reports of the proceedings as possible. The terms of the Daily will be $1 per month. The Weekly and Semi-Weekly will be furnished on liberal terms.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—James A. Leach & Co., Shoe Factors, Thomasville, N. C.

Andrews, the Clothier par excellence, announces a special opening, to-day, of Overcoats, Dress suits, Hats, Under-clothing, &c.

A Virginia lady, highly competent in all respects, desires a situation as Teacher in a private family or private school: Address "South," Edge Hill, King George Co., Va.

Court notice from Clerk of Superior Court of Johnston county: Ezekiel Young and Wife vs. B. B. Tomlinson et als.

Valuable lands near Littleton for sale, at public vendue, on the 23d. of December: Geo. B. Moore, Commissioner.

Fine Liquors, and a great variety of other articles,—an attractive catalogue: B. P. Williamson, Exchange Place, (Market Square.)

We invite attention to "Home Testimony" as to the merits of the "Automatic Washer and Boiler," now on exhibition at Messrs. Lougee & Bro's. It is, indeed, one of the most admirable inventions of the age, and its operations need only to be witnessed to convince every one of its great utility and labor-saving economy.

Read the advertisement of Thomas H. Briggs, No. 10, Fayetteville Street. He has everything in his line, and of the best quality.

NEW SEGAR AND TOBACCO STORE.—A great desideratum in this City has been supplied by Mr. W. A. Mebegan, of Norfolk, who has just opened a first-class Segar and Tobacco Store, at the stand recently occupied by W. H. Thompson, Jeweller. Mr. Mebegan's establishment is every way complete, and his experience in the business enables him to furnish the public with the choicest brands. He deals in imported Segars, Snuff, Pipes and Fine Tobacco, and is himself the enterprising sole manufacturer of the celebrated "Bankers' Segars."—Those who affect the weed, in any of its forms, will do well to call at the new Store, with the certainty of getting the best to be had.

LOOK TO YOUR FEET.—This is good advice, in view of the winter before us. And while consulting durability and comfort, it is as well to consult appearance, also. To accomplish both, you cannot do better than to call upon R. H. Lee, over Royster's Confectionery establishment. Mr. Lee, with many years of successful experience to back him, is one of the best Boot and Shoemakers to be found anywhere, North or South.

MUNICIPAL.—We learn that we were in error, on yesterday, in stating that the Municipal election would take place on the third Monday in January. By an amendment to the Charter of the City, the election takes place on the first Monday in January.

This election is a matter of no small interest to our citizens of all classes. It is of the first importance that no man should be invested with the government of the city, who is not a good and respectable citizen, himself, competent to advise and govern, and at the same time responsible for the proper disbursement and protection of the funds of the city. We have suffered, in some instances in the past, from reckless expenditure, and the infidelity of those who had the disbursement of the funds, and no citizen, who pays a tax or desires the welfare of the city, ought to be indifferent in this matter. We beg, therefore, that our people will be careful to bring out and support the best men we have for the responsible positions of Mayor and Commissioners.

CRIMINAL COURT FOR RALEIGH.—It will be seen that the long and anxiously expected (by certain hungry aspirants) bill to create a Criminal Court in the city of Raleigh was passed on Saturday, in the House of Representatives. Such a Court may be needed, on account of the incompetency of the Judge of the District, but for no other reason. It will involve an unwarranted expense, for the sole benefit of greedy and needy party pets.

SHOE FACTORY.—By reference to the advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Messrs. J. A. Leach, & Co. have commenced, on a large scale, the manufacture of Shoes in Thomasville. They have all the facilities for conducting the business most efficiently and successfully. We have seen specimens of their work, which are equal to the best manufacture of the kind anywhere.

THE LAND WE LOVE for December is up to its usual high standard.

The leading article by Dr. Dabsey, The Duty of the Hour, is a manly protest against sacrificing principle to expediency. The Defence of Beast Butler is novel and entertaining. The Letter from Mount Vernon will be read with interest by all who revere the name of Washington. Pen-feathers is a spicy, burlesque of would be poets and authors. St. Louis, Missouri, is a valuable article full of important statistics. The fiction, poetry, and humor in this number compare favorably with the preceding numbers.

A NOVEL MOTION.—Ragland, Cuffee Mayo's colleague from Granville, distinguished himself in the House, on Saturday. He moved to lay Mr. Pou's intentions on the table! A wag at our elbow wonders if Ragland didn't feel mean, when the House laughed at him. We answer, "no,—there are some things which are simply impossible."

For the Sentinel.

Valuable Information—No. 2.

AXE HANDLES.

The best hickory timber for these is marketable in the rough state, if carefully and uniformly cut, 35 and 37 inches long, and to measure, through each piece, at least 1½ by 2½ inches.

There is, also, sale for pieces 26 inches long—which are used for smaller axes.

The entire log can be availed, but a careful selection of the timber must be observed.

Pick Handles—The same, but may be cut all through 1½ by 3 inches, and 28 inches long.

THE MODEL BLACK REPUBLIC AND SLAVERY.

A rebuke to the American abolitionists has come from the last place on earth from which it was to have been expected—from Africa. Not only from Africa, but from Liberia, a Republic founded as an asylum for emancipated slaves! It appears, and upon no less authority than that of ex-President Roberts, who is now in this country soliciting aid for the Liberian College, that the Republic of Liberia gives its sanction to negro slavery, in this wise: Numbering only eighteen thousand emigrant negroes from America, it has made conquests of the interior tribes, and thus augmented its population to six hundred thousand, and now permits and recognizes slavery among those tribes. President Roberts admits that the wealth of the interior chiefs, like that of the savage tribes, is measured by the number of their wives and slaves.

The intelligence has sunk deep into the humane heart of the New York Tribune.—That paper says: "It is a singular and atrocious fact." It adds: "Efficient steps should be taken to rescue Liberia from this lapse into a slaveholding province, and it will be well for those who are solicited in the name of freedom and humanity to contribute to a Liberian College to enquire whether the gratuitous education of the sons of these slaveholding chiefs may not inure to the growth of Slavery, rather than of Freedom."—Richmond Whig.

MR. CAGE.—The New York Times publishes a letter, written in April last, from Chief Justice Chase to Hon. H. W. Hilliard, of Alabama. In it Mr. Chase says that he agrees with Mr. Hilliard that the seceding States "have never been other than States within the Union since they became parties to the Federal Government, and that the failure to maintain their assertions of independence in the conflict of arms which followed left them States still within the Union." If so, we should like to know why Virginia is ruled by the military, and has no representatives in Congress, and was not allowed to vote in the late Presidential election? The Federal Constitution certainly provides that "each State" shall be so represented, and shall vote for electors in all such elections. But these are matters concerning which Mr. Chase does not condescend to favor us with his views, though he goes on to say that the negroes ought now to have the right to participate in the governing of the country, and that the educated people of the South ought to agree to extend this right to them.

What a burlesque upon free institutions this whole affair has been, to be sure.—Richmond Dispatch.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS CONVENTION.—Boston, Nov. 18.—In the Women's Rights Convention a memorial was adopted asking Congress that women's rights be secured in all future constitutional amendments and legislation for Territories, and the District of Columbia.

Senator Wilson spoke, saying when this question was kept distinct from other questions, he would favor giving women the right to vote. They should appeal to the higher and nobler sentiments of the people, and not to their passions and prejudices.

Other addresses were made, and the convention adjourned to Thursday.

THE Smithsonian Institute has recently received, and the officers there are now engaged in classifying, a large number of skulls, idols &c., found by explorers sent out by the Institute, and who have been engaged in opening mounds in Tennessee, Missouri, and Indiana, in search of antiquities. These skulls and idols are supposed to be older than any that have hitherto been found in this country, and are believed to have belonged to a race inferior to the Indians. The skulls are not so large as those of Indians, and are low shaped and almost square. In the same mounds were also found pottery, implements, &c., unlike any that have been hitherto discovered.—These relics will be classified as quickly as possible, when they will be exhibited as are other articles in the Institute.—Washington Express.

The Washington letter in the Baltimore Gazette of yesterday says that a report is in circulation there that Russia received only $5,000,000 of the $7,200,000 appropriated for the purchase of Alaska. The rest was paid to journalists, congressmen, and lobbymen. Each of the New York papers received $10,000. One N. C. got $250,000. The same correspondent says that the plates of one thousand dollar bonds were sent to Philadelphia last year, where they remained twelve days, and in that time there were, it is supposed, spurious bonds to the amount of $80,000,000 struck off.

General Grant is enjoying himself greatly in New York. He and Mr. Bonner are thick as thieves and taking some grand drives. The General had the honor of 'holding the reins over 'Dexter' through the city, where they encountered many stages and carriages"—says the Tribune.—No doubt, when General G. is Dictator, Mr. Bonner will be Master of Horse, and deservedly so—though Wendell Holmes says reining is Imperial and trotting is Democratic.

A HARD-HEADED OLD DEMOCRAT.—A few nights since a small party were assembled in General Grant's parlor, among them Mr. Dent, his father-in-law, who lives in Missouri. Some one asked him how Missouri had voted. "The old man said: "She gives Grant ten thousand majority, but I'll be d—d if he got my vote!" The General himself roared, with laughter at the reply. Mr. Dent is justly proud of his Democracy.—Exchange.

EARTHQUAKES.—The cable brings good news for those who especially fear earthquakes. Mount Vesuvius has opened her artillery and furnaces, and is now in a most violent state of eruption. This, remarks the New York Express, will let out some of the fires and gases that have been struggling to escape by way of South America and California.

SOUTH CAROLINA contains nineteen million acres of land, of which only one-fourth is under cultivation. The remainder, some 14,500,000, is mainly in primeval forest. Fully half of the 4,500,000 now under quasi cultivation is let out, some of it even as low as $1 per acre, and ranging from that up to $20. Good farms have, within the year, sold as low as $3 per acre, and, in certain cases, even below that.

The Buffalo Courier, of the 16th instant, gives full particulars of an outrageous robbery of a well known citizen recently in that city, the details of which, had the affair occurred in any portion of the South, would furnish admirable capital with which to load down the columns of the Radical press with the story of "Another rebel outrage." A gentleman named Oscar F. Cray, clerk of the custom house, was assailed early in the evening by three ruffians, one of whom dealt him a blow, while the others stripped his pockets of all their contents, consisting of money, bonds and a valuable gold watch.

The New York World, in estimating the expense of the late election in that State, says that Griswold was assessed $50,000 when nominated for Governor, $30,000 more for Pennsylvania, and further sums for New York—making in all "hundreds of thousands of dollars." The Union League Club contributed $200,000, and Senator Morgan a large sum. The total amount raised by the Republicans in New York is put at $1,500,000.

The New York Herald says: "General Grant recently expressed to an army friend his utter contempt of the statesmen who are urging their own merits as office holders on him. He said that he would make up his Cabinet after he received a certificate of election, and then no one would know whom he had decided upon until their names got into print. 'It's no use planning a campaign until you have a war,' said he."

Gen. Butler stated to a reporter of the New York Herald that the new administration will be radical upon the reconstruction points, but conservative upon financial matters. As to the Alabama claims, he thinks the people are willing to wait until the precedent can be used during some English war to square accounts by a like chance on British commerce.

There is a volunteer company in New York, numbering seventy men, none of whom have beards less than a foot in length. The captain, named Vietchemer, cultivates an ornament of that kind which extends to his knees.

A little boy of thirteen, having placed a penny on the railway track at Brunswick, Maine, to see the locomotive crush it, one of the train hands threw a stick of wood at him and he was instantly killed.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—come to look again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

NEVER SATISFIED.

A man in his carriage was riding along,
A gaily dressed wife by his side;
In so in and here she looked like a queen,
And he like a king in his pride.

A good-sawyer stood on the street as he pass'd,
The carriage—the couple he eyed,
And said, as he worked with his saw on a log,
I wish I was rich and could ride.

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife,
One thing I would if I could,
I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the health,
Of the man who is sawing the wood.

A pretty young maid with a bundle of work,
Whose face, as the morning, was fair,
Went tripping along with a smile of delight,
While humming a love-breathing air.

She looked in the carriage—the lady she saw,
Arrayed in apparel so fine,
And said, in a whisper, I wish in my heart,
Those satins and laces were mine.

The lady looked out on the maid with her work,
So fair in her calico dress,
And said, I'd relinquish position and wealth,
Her beauty and youth to possess.

Thus it is in this world; whatever our lot,
Our mind and time we employ
In longing and sighing for what we have not,
Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

TRYING FOR A SCHOOL.

A gentleman from Swampville was telling how many different occupations he had attempted. Among others he had tried school teaching.

"How long did you teach?" asked a bystander.

"Wal, didn't teach long; that is I only went to teach."

"Did you hire out?"

"Wal. I didn't hire out; I only went to hire out!"

"Why did you give up?"

"Wal, I give up for some reason or nuther; you see I traveled into a deestrict and inquired for the trustees. Somebody said Mr Snickles was the man I wanted to see. So I found Mr. Snickles—named my object, introduced myself and I asked him what he thought about letting me try my luck with the boys and the unruly gals in the district. He wanted to know if I really considered myself capable; and I wouldn't mind his asking me a few easy questions in 'rithmatic, jeography, or showing my hand writing. He said, "no, never mind, he could tell a good teacher by his gait."

"Let me see you walk off a little ways," said he, 'and I can tell jis'e well's I'd heard you examined.'"

He set in the door as he spoke, and I thot he looked a little skittish; but I was considerably frustrated and didn't mind much, so I turned round and walked on as smart as I knowed how. He said he'll tell me when to stop, so I kept on till I thought I'd gone far enough; then I s'pected s'thing was to pay, and looked round. Wal, the door was shet and Snickles was gone."

"Did you go back?"

"Wal, no; I didn't apply for another school," said the gentleman from Swampville. "I rather guess my appearance was agin me."

THE PROGRESS OF THE SOUTH.—We subjoin, without a word, the following from the Courier-Journal of Louisville:

The Radicals have carried the election by forces of arms.—Buffalo Courier.

Both by arms and votes are the radicals superior to rebels and rebel sympathizers.—Chicago Republican.

Undoubtedly the radical's can out-vote the democrats whenever the legitimate numerical strength of the two parties is equal. But it is very silly on the part of anybody to attempt to disparage the prowess of the Confederates in the war. No matter where one's sympathies were during the war, we cannot name, nor can any one name, a single battle in which the Federal troops defeated a Confederate force equal to themselves in number. No such incident, either upon a large or a small scale, occurred during the four years. That's one of the truths of history; and not all the world can make it aught but a truth. The South, through the most abominable treachery, after the close of the war, lost her freedom, but let her not therefore be robbed of her title to manhood.
